

Guiding Behavioural Change to Promote Intercultural Development

Ruth Casey
Senior Resident Director
IFSA Scotland

The Lens through which we see the world shapes our reality.

A Starting Point for Intercultural Development:

Quietenning the hubbub.

Denial

“I chose Scotland as it is an English speaking country”

“I studied in Europe last semester...”

The Why of Scottish Culture?

An A – Z of Scottish Culture: From Ancient Castles to Red Hot Chili Pipers.

Minimisation

"Students are Students Everywhere!"

"I felt I could remove my racial armor".
Yetunde, University of Edinburgh

Pluricultural Learning Spaces

Moving beyond the Tourist & towards Intercultural agility

Moving beyond the Tourist & towards Intercultural agility

Moving beyond the Tourist & towards Intercultural agility

Moving beyond the Tourist & towards Intercultural agility

Moving beyond the Tourist & towards Intercultural agility

Defence

I am an A student at home!

I know how to write!

There is no rhythm or logic to the lecture series

My school is so much better!

How can I succeed in a system that doesn't teach

Culture & Community: Invisible Edinburgh

Study Abroad: A High Impact Practice

Thank you!

Thank you for the wonderful students you send and for encouraging them to embark upon this transformative experience.