Databases

  - This allows prospective students to see what their peers think of specific programs. Read reviews from past students about topics regarding academics, safety, housing, cultural components and more.

- GoAbroad.com http://www.goabroad.com/
  - Use this resource to research different types of programs abroad: study, volunteer, teach English, intern or look to pursue a degree. It allows you to use the expertise of a GoAbroad staff member who can give you suggestions on a number of programs based on a questionnaire you can fill out.

- Studyabroad.com http://www.studyabroad.com/
  - Studyabroad.com allows students to view different study abroad programs by country, city, subject or program type.

- Transitions Abroad http://www.transitionsabroad.com/
  - Gain knowledge of different organizations that provide international experience through working, studying, living or volunteering abroad.

- Idealist http://www.idealist.org/
  - Use this site to search for jobs, internships or volunteer opportunities all over the world.

- Moneygeek https://www.moneygeek.com
  - Information about scholarships for graduate programs.

Volunteer Abroad

- WWOOF www.wwoof.org
  - This program allows people to participate in hands on learning by volunteering at an organic farm. Participants choose a country they would like to spend time in and then find a farm that interests them. There is no money exchange for the labor; however, the compensation is room and board.

- Peace Corps www.peacecorps.gov
  - A volunteer program in which the participant lives, learns and works with a community overseas for 27 months, providing technical assistance in six program areas: education, youth and community development, health, business and information and communications technology, agriculture, and environment. This program is available in 76 countries around the world.

- BUNAC http://www.bunac.org/usa/
  - Volunteer in a Cambodian school; on a community development, health care or education project in Lima, Peru; or in a local school, on an environmental project or in a wildlife sanctuary in South Africa.

- Habitat for Humanity www.habitat.org
Short Term: Global Village Volunteer
- 2 week programs in which the participant goes to a designated site to work on house construction, renovations or disaster relief.

Long Term: International Volunteer Program
- This program averages six- twelve months with the location being job specific. Volunteer placements can range from architect to project manager to grant writer to volunteer coordinator.

- Earthwatch Institute engages people worldwide in scientific field research and education to promote the understanding and actions necessary for a sustainable environment. Trips average 9-12 days with topics of research including climate change, ocean health, threatened animals and human/wildlife conflict.

Global Vision International https://www.gviusa.com/
- Volunteer anywhere from 2 weeks to more than 6 months. Projects are available for any interest: wildlife conservation, teaching English, construction, working with children, marine conservation or climate change.

Teach Abroad

- The Jet Programme allows students who are interested in the Japanese culture to deepen their understanding of the country while promoting intercultural relations through teaching English or working with government agencies on international relations. Students must have a college degree

Masa-Israel http://www.masaisrael.org/Masa/English/
- For students of the Jewish faith who wish to spend a semester or year teaching English to school children. There are over 150 different types of programs available.

- Affiliated with the Korean Ministry of Education, Science and Technology participants work with Korean students and teachers to improve English language skills.

CIEE- Multiple http://www.ciee.org/teach/
- CIEE offers numerous programs teaching English to students in Asia, Chile, Dominican Republic, and Spain. These are paid positions ranging from one semester to a full year. Some programs require TEFL certification while others include it in the program.

Greenheart Travel-Multiple https://greenhearttravel.org/programs/adult/teach
- A division of Center for Cultural Interchange, Greenheart Travel offers participants a chance to teach English in South Korea, Georgia, China and Thailand.

- LanguageCorps offers teaching programs in 17 countries. Each location includes a four week intensive TESOL certification. Participants can then look at what other services they want to include in their time abroad such as accommodation, extra cultural learning and guaranteed job placement.

- UC Irvine course that after completion will give you a TEFL certification for teaching English abroad. The staff will also help you find placement for a job overseas.

i-to-i Teach Abroad TEFL Certificate https://www.i-to-i.com/
- i to i offers TEFL certification through a classroom or online. They offer a placement service to find jobs overseas in Georgia, Ecuador, Czech Republic and a few locations in Asia.

World Teach https://worldteach.org/
Started by Harvard students in 1986, this NGO allows participants to teach in Asia, Africa or Latin America for a semester or year. World Teach offers a TEFL certification program and does not require prior teaching experience. This program will help develop key skills, including teaching, language, cross-cultural communication and leadership.

Work Abroad

- BUNAC  http://www.bunac.org/usa/
  - Work abroad in Australia, Britain, Canada, Ireland or New Zealand for up to 12 months. BUNAC will help you with visas and searching for a job. Students must be enrolled at a university

- NAFSA Career Center  https://www.nafsa.org/Professional_Resources/Career_Center/
  - NAFSA is the Association of International Educators. Use this resource to search for jobs related to the field of International Education. Universities and third party providers post job vacancies dealing with both incoming and outgoing students.

- STA Travel  http://www.statravel.com/work-abroad.htm
  - Use STA Travel as your gateway to another culture for up to a year. They have locations in Australia, New Zealand, Europe, Asia and Latin America. Some locations offer work as an English teacher, others leave the profession up to you.

- GoAbroad.com  http://jobs.goabroad.com/
  - Intern, teach English or find a job that interests you. GoAbroad.com lets you choose a job by location or by profession. It also lists job postings by international companies for you to browse.

- InterExchange  http://www.interexchange.org/working-abroad
  - This site offers a wide range of opportunity for working abroad. Choose from being an Au Pair to teaching English to just being on a Work/Holiday visa and finding a job that works best for you.

  - The Work and Holiday visa is for young people aged 18 to 30 who want to travel and work for up to 12 months in Australia. This visa allows you to supplement the cost of your holiday through periods of temporary or casual employment.

Graduate Study Abroad

- Fulbright Scholarship  http://fulbright.state.gov/
  - Government grants given to students to promote intercultural relations or to try to find solutions to international concerns. Students may study or conduct research while abroad. There is an opportunity to teach English with a Fulbright Grant as well. Fulbright Grants are generally merit and leadership based. In most cases the participant needs to have a bachelor’s degree by the grants start.

- English Open Doors  http://centrodevoluntarios.cl/
  - English Opens Doors was established in 2004 by the Chilean Ministry of Education. The program places native English-speakers in public schools throughout Chile to work with local teachers to plan activities and lead classes. Teachers live with a host family, and placements last from 5-11 months.

- Boren Award  http://www.borenawards.org/
  - These scholarships given by the government are meant to build relationships with countries of National Security. Participants will focus on learning a new critical language or building upon language skills they already possess.
International Graduate School
http://www.gradschools.com/program-types/graduate-schools-by-country
  o Use this site to research international graduate programs